Arizona Deaf and Blind Children's Association Announces New Board Chairman, Slate of Officers

(Tucson, Arizona – January 19, 2010) Arizona Deaf and Blind Children's Association today announced its new slate of officers for 2010. Dave Allan, of Sundt Construction Phoenix, heads the ticket as new Chairman of the Board. Cliff Rowley, a Deaf Advocate and retired engineer in Tucson, is Vice Chairman, and Mark Spellerberg, President and CEO of All-Biz, is Treasurer.

"This is a very strong slate, and I look forward to working with the officer and the rest of the Board to continue to strengthen the Foundation and its mission," said Allan, the new Board Chairman. As Chairman, Allan's two-year term runs from January, 2010 through December, 2011.

Allan, who has served on the Foundation Board for seven years, brings more than 35 years of management experience to his new post, with a focus on managing major construction projects in Arizona and nationally.

"Arizona Blind and Deaf Children's Foundation has a unique mission, and the children we reach need us now more than ever," said Allan. "I'm honored to have been chosen as its next leader."
